Dear Ms. Mitzi Adams,

The purpose of this memo is to convey the outcome of the Elementary Instructional Committee's review of your Request for Reconsideration of Instructional Materials. In accordance with the Board Policy KNBA, George, by Alex Gino was reviewed in light of the target age of the students, the purpose of the materials, any mandatory use of the materials, educational value, the basis of the complaint, and relevant community standards.

The committee members came to consensus on their recommendation not to remove the book from the library. The Committee found that the content is appropriate for the intended audience, ages ten and above.

If you do not agree with a Committee's decision, you may appeal the decision to the Board by notifying the Superintendent in writing within ten days of receipt of the Committee's decision. The notice of appeal shall state the specific basis of the disagreement. The Board will review the appeal and the Committee's decision at or before its next regular monthly meeting. The Board will take such action as it deems appropriate.

Sincerely,

Charlotte McDavid, PhD
